BNY Mellon Asset Servicing takes TOP RATED and BEST IN CLASS Securities Lending Honors in 2008 Global Custodian Survey

Top Rated and Best in Class

Results of the Global Custodian 2008 Securities Lending Survey once again prove that BNY Mellon Asset Servicing maintains a leading position in client satisfaction. In the survey dedicated exclusively to securities lending, BNY Mellon Asset Servicing earned 5 Top Rated and 28 Best in Class awards.

A snapshot of our survey ratings shows that BNY Mellon Asset Servicing earned a "Top Rated" award in the single provider service area, as well as led all of our peers in average weighted score. Moreover, we achieved "Best in Class" awards in 7 service categories as rated by clients. BNY Mellon Asset Servicing also earned top rated awards in multiple other service areas, including custody asset size and geographic region.

In an analysis of survey results, Global Custodian wrote: "The newly merged banks retain with room to spare the top rated status they each enjoyed separately in the last survey."

~ Our top rating and best in class achievements serve as a testament of our dedication to deliver a securities lending program driven to be the best in class service provider for clients. Moreover, our ratings demonstrate that our expertise, flexibility and client service focus are at the core of everything we do. ~

This is the first year of a stand-alone securities lending survey published by Global Custodian. Previously, securities lending was included as part of a larger custody survey in which BNY Mellon Asset Servicing consistently earned Top Rated and Best in Class securities lending honors over multiple years.
