Expanding Your Transfer Services

Traditionally, a co-transfer agent is appointed by an issuer to accept and transfer certificates and transmit daily activity journals to the primary record-keeping agent.

A co-agent does not maintain security holder records, but is used to facilitate the transfer of stock in a geographic region that is not easily accessible to the issuer or the principal transfer agent.

As co-transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services also responds to written and telephone shareholder inquiries regarding transfer requirements, estate waivers and other transfer-related questions. Acting as co-transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services can provide additional functionality not offered by your primary transfer agent. For example:

Consulting Services:

- Capital Markets Advisory Group
- StockWatch
- Proxy Solicitation
- Information Agent Services
- Odd-Lot Programs

Investment Plan Services:

- Employee Stock Purchase Plans
- Employee Stock Option Plans

Corporate Actions:

- Tender Offers
- Conversions
- Redemptions
- Dutch Auctions
- Stock Dividends
- Leveraged Buyouts
- Rights Offerings
- Exchange Offers
- Stock Splits

Unclaimed Property
